Summer Member Spotlight

"I joined the union during my second year of employment at TPS, and boy, was I glad I did. An incident occurred on my bus through no fault of my own. I followed the proper protocol and filed my report. I was denied due process and clearly my job was at risk. I called my union office and talked to a union representative. The problem was resolved and I never heard another thing about it. I want to encourage others to join the union. The union helps communication between the employees and the employer. The union allows employees to bond together to negotiate for better wages and benefits, and to make sure that everyone is being treated fairly by the employer."—
